1 POLICY STATEMENT

Online Services provided to students in public schools will only be used for learning related activities and require informed parental consent and appropriate management.

2 BACKGROUND

Students need to be protected from exposure to inappropriate online material or activities, to be aware of the risks associated with some online activities, and to adopt protective online behaviour. The Department makes every reasonable effort to achieve this by educating and informing students and parents, as well as by putting measures in place to monitor email traffic and internet access. All activities conducted using the Department's online services may be logged and accessed for administrative, legal or security purposes.

This policy has been developed to assist teachers to put in place school-based processes and procedures that will both protect and inform students and parents in their use of Departmental online services. The Department continues to work with the Australian Communications and Media Authority (ACMA), the Australian Government agency responsible for Cybersafe and Cybersmart kids programs in schools.

3 SCOPE

This policy applies to all public school principals, teachers and supervisors of public school students accessing online services from any of the Department’s locations including, but not limited to, schools.

4 PROCEDURES

4.1 ACCESS AND SECURITY

Principals must:

- inform parents and teachers of this policy’s existence;
- provide students access to online services-enabled computers within the limits of available resources;
- advise parents that while the Department will make every reasonable effort to provide a safe and secure online learning experience for students when using the Department’s online services, it is not possible to guarantee that students will not be exposed to inappropriate material;
- advise parents that any Internet browsing by their child at home or from other non-school locations, will not be via the Department’s online services and therefore will not be filtered by the Department; and
- approve any material planned for publication on the Internet or intranets and verify appropriate copyright and privacy clearance.

Teachers must:
• provide appropriate supervision for students using the Internet and other online services at school.
• issue and maintain student passwords in a confidential and secure manner, with additional consideration and provision given to early primary and special needs students.

Guidelines
Detailed guideline information is available in Appendix A.

4.2 CONDITIONS OF USE

Teachers must receive an Acceptable Usage Agreement signed by the student or parent before granting students access to online services (see samples in Appendices B to F).

4.3 PERSONAL INFORMATION, PRIVACY AND CONFIDENTIALITY

Principals must gain written permission from the student or their parent if the student is under 18 years of age, before publishing video recordings, photographs or comments relating to their students.

Teachers must advise students they should not reveal personal information including names, addresses, financial details (e.g. credit card), telephone numbers or images (video or photographic) of themselves or others.

Guidelines
The school address or email address may be used where it is necessary to receive a reply.

Students should also be made aware that, since some of their online services provided by the Department, such as email and online file storage, may contain their personal name, these details should also be protected and should never be used in non-school online communications.

Further information on the importance of online anonymity and protective online behaviours is available at: http://www.cybersmart.gov.au.

4.4 INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY AND COPYRIGHT

Teachers must advise students of the need to:

• be aware of the legal requirements regarding copyright when downloading information;
• gain permission before electronically publishing users’ works or drawings;
• acknowledge the creator or author of any material published; and
• observe appropriate copyright clearance including acknowledging the author or source of any information used.

4.5 MISUSE AND BREACHES OF ACCEPTABLE USAGE

Principals and teachers must:

• follow procedures for fairness and due process where there is an alleged misuse or breach of this policy including investigating any reported misuse and, where possible, accurately retracing misuse to the offender;
tailor disciplinary action taken in relation to students to meet specific concerns related to the breach, and assist students in gaining the self-discipline necessary to behave appropriately when using the online services; and promptly address the online publication of defamatory material about staff or students.

Teachers must inform students:

- of the consequences of breaches caused by them allowing any other person to use their online services account;
- that the consequences of misusing online services will be withdrawal of access to online services and other consequences outlined in the Behaviour Management in Schools policy; and
- of their possible legal liability for offences committed using online services.

4.5.1 REPORTING MISUSE, BREACHES AND INAPPROPRIATE MATERIAL

Principals must report to the ICT Customer Service Centre any suspected technical security breach by users of Department Online Services outside the school as well as security breaches within the school that the school cannot resolve.

Guidelines
Appropriate action by the principal should be taken in accordance with the Department’s Behaviour Management in Schools policy.

The Department provides a level of content filtering through a comprehensive list of banned sites that are updated daily. This list bans access to sites that have been identified as unsuitable for the education market. Schools wishing to have sites which they consider inappropriate added to the Department’s list of banned sites should contact the Customer Service Centre (CSC) on 9264 5555 or 1800 012 828 or by emailing customer.servicecentre@education.wa.edu.au. Many schools also operate local filtering systems in an endeavour to reduce the risk of student exposure to inappropriate content.

PARENT AND RESPONSIBLE PERSON

In this policy the term parent will be used for brevity, and also includes ‘responsible person’ as defined below.

In the School Education Act 1999, Part 1, Section 4, Definitions, parent in relation to a child, means a person who at law has responsibility -

a) for the long-term care, welfare and development of the child; or

b) for the day to day care, welfare and development of the child except in sections 9 (2), 10 (b), 25, 27, 38 (1) and Division 2 Part 2 where it only has the meaning given by paragraph (b).

Section 25 of the School Education Act 1999 the “responsible person”, in relation to a student means-

a) a parent of the student;

b) in the case of a student who has turned 18 or is a prescribed child, the student; or

c) a person whose details have been provided under section 16(1) (b) (ii) (II) which states any adult person, not being a parent, who is responsible for the child.

ONLINE SERVICES

Any services including, but not limited to, email, calendaring, instant messaging, web conferencing, discussion groups, online file sharing and storage, Internet access and web browsing, that may be accessed using the computer networks and services of the Department.

INAPPROPRIATE CONTENT

Content that is considered unsuitable or harmful to students. It includes material that is pornographic, that promotes illegal activities, violence or prejudice on the grounds of race, religion, gender or sexual orientation.

APPENDIX A  GUIDELINES

A.1 RESPONSIBLE USE OF ONLINE SERVICES

The agreements and forms provided in the appendices provide examples of the type of document that can be used to obtain agreement and sign-off from students and parents or responsible persons. These forms do not constitute or contain legal disclaimers but they do help to meet the requirement to make students and parents aware of their obligations and the risks associated with online services use. Similarly the logon reminder text in the appendix is provided as an example of the type of information window that schools may find useful to have automatically displayed to all users when logging in to the school network.

Schools may wish to periodically repeat requests for sign-off (e.g. at the start of the school year) on the agreements by students and parents as a means of reminding them of their responsibilities when using the Department’s information and communication technologies.

Monitoring and tracking online activity across the Department's network is a complex and expensive activity, resulting in the creation of extremely large system event log files which are difficult to store and use. It is important therefore to realise that it will not always be possible for ICT staff to trace online activity or to provide comprehensive historical details of individual online activity.

A.1.1 ACCEPTABLE USAGE AGREEMENT

A typical school Acceptable Usage Agreement should stipulate that students:

- agree to adhere to the rules set out in the Acceptable Usage Agreement each time they log on to online services (see appendices C, D and E);
- ensure that all communication using online services is related to learning or school activities;
- keep passwords confidential, and change them when prompted or when known by another user;
- never knowingly allow others to use their personal online services account unless directed to by a teacher for the purposes of collaborative learning;
- not use their online file storage to share or store personal or inappropriate content;
- log off at the end of each session to ensure that nobody else can use their online services account;
- not send or publish unacceptable or unlawful material or remarks including offensive, abusive, defamatory or discriminatory comments;
- not access or attempt to access inappropriate material;
- not engage in any bullying, intimidation or other inappropriate behaviour online;
- ask a staff member’s advice if another user is seeking excessive personal information, asks to be telephoned, offers gifts by email or wants to meet them;
- immediately tell a nominated staff member if they receive a computer virus or a message that is inappropriate or makes them feel uncomfortable;
- never knowingly initiate or forward emails containing:
  - a message that was sent to them privately;
  - a computer virus or attachments that are capable of damaging recipients’ computers;
  - chain letters and hoax emails; and
Students Online
All policy and procedural statements contained within this document are lawful orders for the purposes of section 80(a) of the Public Sector Management Act 1994 (WA) and are therefore to be observed by all Department of Education employees.

9 Effective: 18 March 2010

- spam such as unsolicited advertising material, or mail unrelated to learning;
- be made aware by teachers that emails sent or received via the Department’s online services may be audited and traced to the online services accounts of specific users;
- not damage or disable computers, computer systems or networks of the school or the Department; and
- ensure that online services are not used for unauthorised commercial activities, political lobbying, gambling or any unlawful purpose.

A.2 GUIDELINES FOR TEACHERS

It is recommended that teachers:
- are aware of their responsibilities for supervising student use of online services as laid out in this policy and the Duty of Care for Students policy;
- maintain an informed view of the relative risks and educational benefits of online activity by their students. A variety of resources are available from ACMA’s Cybersmart site (http://www.cybersmart.gov.au/) to assist with this including professional learning materials, online cybersafety games, interactive learning programs, lesson plans and units of work, online helpline for students, information guides and presentation materials;
- ensure that students are aware of the possible negative consequences of publishing identifying information online including their own or other students’ images;
- refrain from publishing student images or any student-identifying information on the Internet. If such publication is necessary, limit the amount of time the information is online as much as possible;
- check that any material planned for publication on the Internet or intranets has the approval of the principal and has appropriate copyright and privacy clearance;
- are aware of the steps to take and advice to give if students notify them of inappropriate or unwelcome online activity by fellow students or members of the public. Such steps may include:
  - collecting as much information as possible about the incident including copies of communications;
  - emphasising to the student that the event is not necessarily their fault;
  - identifying any risky behaviours on the part of the reporting student and counselling them on the need to adopt more protective behaviours; and
  - if the incident warrants further attention, escalate it to school and/or Department authorities, notifying police only if you suspect the law may have been broken, such as a possible attempt by an adult to groom or encourage the student to meet face-to-face;
- inform parents that student Internet access from home or other non-school sites does not occur via the Department’s network and therefore Internet browsing may not be filtered;
- use group photos only with subjects in regular school uniform or day clothing when publishing on the Department’s intranet or Internet. Photographs of lone individuals, of students in swimming costumes, or similar should be avoided;
- promote the use of strong passwords for students who can cope with the complexity. Stronger passwords:
  - contain a mixture of alphabetic and non-alphabetic characters;
  - are changed frequently;
  - do not contain dictionary words;
do not contain easily identified personal information such as name, date of birth, etc;
- do not contain any part of the account identifier such as the username;
and
- are not written down.

Full details on password security can be found in the ICT Security Procedures: 1.2 Password and User ID policy;

- adapt the sample ‘Acceptable Usage Agreements’ attached to this policy to suit the class context and the needs of students. In particular, giving consideration to the value of having students with disabilities or younger students signing an agreement: teachers may choose to use the agreement as a guide to discuss responsibilities with students or provide an option for parents to sign on their behalf.

A.3 GUIDELINES FOR PRACTICAL USE OF ONLINE SERVICES

It is recommended that principals and teachers:

- set realistic expectations with students prior to use of online services, for example when they can expect email replies;
- use mail enabled groups and list services to facilitate communication within and between schools;
- encourage users to manage their mailbox, deleting unnecessary email and backing up important emails or attachments; and
- encourage users to be mindful of the negative impacts on the school network of sharing or transmitting large files.
Dear parent / responsible person

Our school now provides access to the online services provided by the Department of Education. These increase the range of teaching tools available to staff and will enhance the opportunities available to students.

I am writing to you to seek approval for your child to be given access to these online services. This will involve the school using the student’s full name, preferred name, class and year to access their unique online services account.

The Department’s online services currently provide:

- individual email accounts for all students and staff;
- access to the internet, with all reasonable care taken by schools to monitor and control students’ access to websites while at school;
- access to the online teaching and learning services such as webconferencing, digital resources and online learning activities;
- access to online file storage and sharing services; and
- access to Portal services from home if the home computer is connected to the Internet.

If you agree to your son or daughter making use of these online services, please complete the permission slip attached to this letter. You will also need to ensure that your son or daughter reads or understands the Acceptable Usage Agreement, also attached to this letter, before the permission slip is signed. Both signed documents should be returned to school so that an online services account can be created for your child.

Please note that while every reasonable effort is made by schools and the Department to prevent student exposure to inappropriate online content when using the Department’s Online Services, it is not possible to completely eliminate the risk of such exposure.

You should also be aware that general Internet browsing by your child from home or locations other than school is not monitored or filtered by the Department since it is not conducted via the Department’s network and that you are responsible for supervision of your child’s use of the internet from home.

Yours sincerely
